An Accident Waiting to Happen

By Eileen Patterson

For middle and high school students in Warwick, the Village seems like a short walk for an after-school stop. But is it a safe walk?

The straightest path to the Village for these students is West Street, which runs from County Rte 1 to Main St. This section of West Street does not have sidewalks and the students must walk within a two-foot shoulder along a busy roadway. They must contend with two-way traffic traveling at a posted speed limit of 40mph.

After crossing the border into the Village, the speed limit drops to 35 but the sidewalk does not begin for another quarter of a mile. The shoulder might be wide enough if the kids walked single file; but they rarely do. Drivers traveling eastbound towards the Village must often swerve across the yellow line to allow room for kids walking in traffic.

The Town Board spoke with the developer, Sandy Pankin, during the approval process and came to an agreement about the sidewalks. “Mr. Pankin’s site plan did not include sidewalks nor did the Planning Board require it, but the Town Board met with him and made the suggestion,” said Supervisor Sweeton. Pankin contributed $60,000 to fund the construction of sidewalks on the West St. border of his site. The Town Department of Public Works (DPW) expects to begin that project in the spring.

Neighbors of the winery received official letters from the Neighbors of the winery received official letters from the Village Supervisor. “I just wish they would walk on the north side of the road. There’s more room on that side and they can see and be seen by the drivers,” said Ginley. Town Supervisor Michael Sweeton is aware that sidewalks are necessary in that section of Town. “It’s always in the back of our minds,” said Sweeton. “Valley View Estates” is a new development which will be added at the corner of West and County Route 1. The property surrounds the Raymond Hose Fire House and will include approximately 50 homes.

The ‘Shot’ Heard Around the Town

By Eileen Patterson

Over the past several weeks, many residents in and around the Village of Warwick have reacted to the sound of a gunshot in the distance. Most are unable to pin point its location, but the sound is identified as that of a gunshot. The “shots” are heard in regular intervals throughout the day, usually about once every half hour.

A call to Village Hall or the Warwick Police Department will confirm that the shots are not from a gun, but from a propane cannon being used at Demarest Hill Winery and Vineyard, has been using these cannon for the past three years to protect his crop from being destroyed by birds. The system was recommended to Mr. Ciummo by the New York State Department of Agriculture as an acceptable means of bird control. The birds are not harmed by the cannons; they are startled and retreat from the sound.

Born in Molise, Italy 70 years ago, Mr. Ciummo has lived with his family in Warwick for 17 years. Seven years ago, Mr. Ciummo decided to turn 12 of his 135 acres into a vineyard and to begin production of a family winery. He received his NY State distillery license in 2003 and now offers over 36 different wines. Last year, the Demarest Hill Winery sold approximately 10,000 bottles of wine. Mr. Ciummo says that his winery is not a large business but it supports his family and his life-long love of making wine.

The primary source of his distribution is the shop at the Demarest Hill Winery. The cannon discharges “poof” than a gunshot. He sought permission and support from the Department of Agriculture for this system. Neighbors of the winery received official letters from the Department of Agriculture with information about the device. Mr. Ciummo knows there are other alternatives but they are costly. There is a net that would cover the grapes, but the cost is approximately $5,000 and that expense is not an option for this young winery.

Free Workshop on Sustainable Wastewater Management for Lake Communities

The public is invited to a workshop on Thurs., Sept. 22, from 7 – 9:15 p.m. about innovative methods for managing wastewater, using individual onsite septic systems and small community collection and treatment systems. This workshop will provide a detailed overview of technologies and management practices that can reduce the impact of phosphorus on water quality in lakes and reservoirs.

Phosphorus is an important component of wastewater that can cause significant problems in surface water bodies, including overgrowth of weeds and algae. These problems, in turn, can contribute to drinking water quality problems in downstream areas. Reduction of phosphorus loading, therefore, is a key goal for effective, long-term management of surface water quality.

This workshop will be presented by Carl Etnier of Stone Environmental Inc. Mr. Etnier is the lead author of a new study on phosphorus management options for onsite and small community wastewater systems, prepared for the National Decentralized Water Resources Capacity Development Project, with funding from the US Environmental Protection Agency.

This presentation is designed to support the ongoing efforts of the Village of Greenwood Lake, Town of Warwick, Greenwood Lake Commission, and other agencies and organizations working to protect and enhance water quality in Greenwood Lake and other water resources in the region.

This presentation will take place at the Senior Citizen’s Center, 132 Windermere Ave., Greenwood Lake (next to the Bank of NY) and is sponsored by: Village of Greenwood Lake, Town of Warwick, Greenwood Lake Commission, Orange County Water Authority, and Orange County Department of Planning. RSVP to Orange County Water Authority by calling 291-4861. For more information contact Simon Greuber, Project Manager O.C. Decentralized Wastewater Demonstration Project at 534-3662 or email sgreuber@frontiernet.net.

In June, the Warwick Village Board received a more detailed site plan of the Red Swan Inn from the Development Team Demetroules. As required, the Trustees asked their newly-hired planner, Ted Fink to review the application with the site plan and advise them on next steps. The Board held a work session on Aug. 29 to share Mr. Fink's comments on this project with the public and the applicant. Mr. Fink spoke at length about the process which is regulated by the New York State Department of Environmental Quality Review Act (SEQR).

Mr. Fink advised the Trustees that they had two options before them - they could rule that the project would have no environmental impact on the community (a negative declaration), or they could decide, based on criteria provided by NYS Department of Environmental Conservation, that a positive declaration is in order. A positive declaration denotes that a proposed project may have a significant effect on the environment surrounding the project.

Residents living near the parcel were in attendance at the Aug. 29 work session. Public comment is not typically within the guidelines of this type of meeting, but at the outset of the project, both the Board and the Demetroules team have expressed a desire to include comments from the public.

Before the application for the particulars of the Red Swan Inn can be considered, the applicant must receive an express a desire to include comments from the public. The Board held a work session on Aug. 29 to review the site plan. The Red Swan Inn will be necessary to access these dumpsters; permits will be easier the Village will have dumpsters available at DPW.

The beautiful weather was perfect for all the planned weekend events. Stores downtown remained open late on Saturday night. A drumming performance took place in Railroad Green. A gallery opening showing the artwork representing next week's Warwick Valley Artist Tour drew art lovers too!

Sunday began with a ceremony to honor the firefighters of 9/11. It was also to honor the forces in Iraq. Other ceremonies to honor Sept. 11 were at Pacem en Terris and Sanfordville Memorial School's Wall of Peace.

The last concert of the season took place at Railroad Green with a Big Band Concert!

We are lucky…these local activities are part of the things that connect us as a community. Thank you to all the volunteers that made these events happen! Thank you to all who participate that make these events a success!

The next Village Board meeting is Mon., Sept. 19 at 6:30 p.m. The Board is convening earlier to go into Executive Session to discuss police contract negotiations.

The Payment in Lieu of Parklands is a one-time fee paid by the developer who has opted not to provide acreage to the Village for use as a park. That amount is set on the Village Fee schedule at $3,000 per unit. Without an adjustment to that fee, Mandelbaum would be expected to pay over $700,000 for his 240-unit development.

Initially, Mandelbaum approached the Board with the suggestion that they waive the $3,000-per-unit fee. Said, "It is not uncommon for municipalities to do this." Mr. Mandelbaum indicated that this fee is designed to consider the facilities that will be necessary to access these dumpsters; permits will be easier the Village will have dumpsters available at DPW.

Mandelbaum suggested the Trustees consider assigning the PILOT fee to the Village for use as a park. That amount is set on the Village Fee schedule at $3,000 per unit. Without an adjustment to that fee, Mandelbaum would be expected to pay over $700,000 for his 240-unit development.

Mandelbaum was willing to pay over $700,000 for his 240-unit development.

The Board then discussed another agreement recently reached with Mandelbaum. He has agreed to fund the Village for use as a park. That amount is set on the Village Fee schedule at $3,000 per unit. Open Forum Seeks Better Ways to Fund State Controlled Schools

Editor,

I attended the open forum, in Goshen, held by our well-intentioned state lawmakers who are seeking better ways to fund our state controlled schools, before we bankrupt property owners.

There was the usual litany of ideas including an income tax, a sales tax, taxing the rich even more, but the most telling suggestion came from a member of the Warwick School Board. With great vigor and enthusiasm, he suggested that we “tax the churches, tax the synagogues, and tax the non-profits.” This misguided individual makes decisions concerning education, and I wonder there is a schism between taxpayers and the school system.

The run away public school taxing system has encouraged special interests involvement including, self-esteem building, abortion rights, environmental and animal rights, gay rights, the anti-family crowd and those desiring a secular society. What every happened to math, science and the other “core subjects?”

Many of those at the meeting recognized the importance of competing in the “global economy” so why not competition in the “educational economy.” Eliminate the state’s monopoly on education so private schools can fairly compete with public schools.

Lastly, do away with those unfunded state and federal mandates, make them voluntary letting the local communities determine what is best for them.

After doing this, we will not have to worry about some nitwit school board member who just wants more taxes from more people.

Guidelines for Effective Letters

Everyone has a right to express an honest opinion, but we would like to remind readers of a few simple rules for writing effective letters.

Less is more! The shorter your letter the more likely it is to be read. Civility is more persuasive than invectiveness. That is, honey catches more flies than vinegar.

When you read a letter that angers you or that you disagree with, we warmly encourage you to write a response following the guidelines suggested above. Our pages are always open to lively debate, but not to unfairness.

No letters should be approximately 400 words or less due to space limitations. Letters must be signed with full name and contain a telephone number for verification purposes. Anonymous or unsigned letters will not be published.

Letters may be edited for length and style. The deadline for sending letters is 12 noon on Mondays. Letters may be mailed to the Warwick Valley Dispatch, P.O. Box 594, Warwick, NY 10990, or faxed to 987-1180. Letters may also be emailed to editor@wvdispatch.com.

‘Under Tent Party’ Raises $28,000

Editor,

In behalf of the Historical Society of the Town of Warwick we would like to thank the Warwick community for its outstanding support and participation in our recent ‘Under the Tent’ Pride and Preservation Fundraiser held on August 27th. Thanks to everyone, we were able to raise by that event that was attended by 350 people. The proceeds are a major portion of our annual operating budget, without which we would not be able to fund our community outreach efforts nor maintain the museum buildings.

Thanks to our “pole sponsors”, antique dealers, local business and individual auction item donors, Society members and area restaurants, who provided food, the many volunteers, and to the members and public who were in attendance. All contributed to make this year’s party the most successful in its fifteen year history. This generous out-pouring will help insure that our buildings continue to be well maintained and the Society’s educational programs remain available to all.

Warwick’s true community spirit has once again prevailed and we are most appreciative.

COMMITTEE FAMILY OF LOU ALLEN FUNDRAISER
Calls for Resignation - Trucks for Village Should have Gone Out for Bid

Editor,

Ok...so let me see if I have this straight....we have a Village Trustee and the Mayor signing off on a lease contract for some trucks that should have gone out for bid? How can the Mayor “ok” this knowing that it is against the law to do so without going to other companies for bids? Better yet, how can a Village Trustee even put in for something like this knowing full well that it is an obvious “conflict of interest” since he works for the company he did the paperwork for? This is unbelievable! Whatever happened to supporting local business, a good job to keep them in business? Here we have some Village Board Members and a Mayor signing off on a lease contract for Ford trucks when we have a LOCAL Ford dealer of our own.

The problem was brought to our attention and has been dealt with directly and with all appropriate and due process. I immediately called the New York State Comptrollers Office for an opinion regarding the State Bid process for municipal leases because the Village never before leased trucks, as the leased vehicles.

Bozarts is the hard part.
This article is my way of communicating with you, the residents of the Village of Florida, on a regular basis. Any opinions expressed are strictly my own.

How can I help? This is the question on everyone’s mind these days as we wonder what we can do, in our own small way, and if it will be enough to make any difference to the victims of the Hurricane Katrina disaster. Most of us are not in a position to drop everything and concentrate all of our time, efforts and money on the suffering and devastation of our neighbors. We can, however, assemble ourselves right here, right now and form a team that can organize a worthy response to help meet their needs. This is exactly what our Village of Florida Chamber of Commerce, is working on right now. The Board of Directors has decided to combine with other local community civic organizations and private entities to find the best way to raise money and gather non-perishable supplies. As plans develop, more details will follow.

In the meantime, Bob Pugh, owner of the Allstate Insurance Co., located in the Professional Bldg., here in the Village of Florida, is collecting non-perishable items at his office. Only new clothing items will be accepted, meaning that they must be packaged and/or still bearing tags. His office is open Mon. through Fri. from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Bob or his son, Rob, will be happy to accept your donations.

Please remember to only make contributions to recognized charities or relief agencies. Do not respond to telephone solicitors.

911 Memorial Service Held

By Nancy Owen

On a day with crystal clear, blue skies, similar to the day it commemorated, the fourth annual memorial service for those members of the Warwick community who went to work and never came home was held.

Commander Bob Ritzer, of the American Legion, conducted a simple service for those who gave their lives in the line of duty, when our country was attacked on Sept. 11, 2001 and the World Trade Center fell.

After brief speeches by Village Mayor Michael Newhard, Town Supervisor Michael Sweeton and County Assemblywoman Annie Rabbitt, a soulful rendition of “Taps” was played by a member of the local American Legion and “Amazing Grace” was performed by a kazoo band.

While all the speeches noted the tragedy we experienced on that day and the fact that we will “never forget it,” Michael Newhard also remarked that life goes on (as it should) and that we have to look forward to other life events and even experience other events on this memorial day.

On Mon., Aug. 29, Warwick residents Rick and Maura Peddle, the owners of BiNK, a new baby boutique at 22 Railroad Ave., were escorted on a special tour of St. Anthony Community Hospital’s Kennedy Birthing Center.

The tour of the state-of-the-art facility, led by Leah Cerkvenik, executive vice president/administrator of St. Anthony Community Hospital and Diane DeFrest, Nurse Manager, OB/GYN/ maternity consultant, was in appreciation of the store owners’ plan to celebrate their Sept. 17 grand opening for the Birthing Center.

The store features essential baby gear including strollers, diaper bags, gifts and layette sets, feminine nursing bras and accouterments, and select bassinet and high chair lines. BiNK will also deliver baby clothing, gifts, cards and gift certificates directly to the hospital.

The National award winning Kennedy Birthing Center is a state-of-the-art maternity unit, providing many innovative options and amenities. Approximately 550 babies are born each year at the facility, which combines modern technology with a comfortable, family-oriented atmosphere.

With beautifully decorated, single birthing suites, the Kennedy Birthing Center was built to cater to families, providing homelike surroundings for a more natural labor, delivery and recovery, all in one location, during a complication-free birth process. The Center also provides a C-Section Suite, a large, cheerful nursery and several gynecological rooms.

“We are grateful to Rick and Maura Peddle for including fundraising for our Birthing Center during the grand opening celebration of their new store,” said Leah Cerkvenik. “This is another fine example of the generosity of support that we receive from our business community”.

The Greater Newburgh Symphony Orchestra, once only a dream of the visionary and dedicated Conductor-Music Director, Woomyung Choe is here to stay. Drawing from a wealth of talented area musicians, the Symphony is a major source of community pride with its own Newburgh Symphonic Chorale under the direction of Choral Master Claudia Cummings. To share in its history and its future – and to commemorate ten years of music making – a spectacular Gala performance will take place on Sat., Sept. 24 at 7:30 p.m. in the Newburgh Free Academy High School Auditorium, 201 Fullerton Ave., Newburgh, NY.

Collaborating on this special event are members of the Warwick Valley Chorale directed by Stanley Curtis, Middletown City Chorale directed by Eileen Hampshire, Ulster Choral Society and Camerata Chorale directed by Lee and Margaret Pritchard, and Orange County Classic Choral Society directed by Janlece Kohler. Wishing to embrace an Orange County neighbor who shares the same cultural traditions, the concert will be repeated on Sun., Sept. 25 at 3 p.m. at the Lycian Centre, King's Highway, Sugar Loaf, NY.

The sound of mixed voices combined with the full orchestra promises to ensure a festive and exciting time. There will be a grand parade of familiar favorites from the drawing rooms of Europe to the plains of Egypt. Selections from Lehar's "The Merry Widow," with soprano Claudia Cummings and baritone James Rensink, are featured on Sept. 24. Ms. Cummings will sing the same selections on Sept. 25 with hometown star, baritone Patrick Carlizzi.

Kings Theatre Company will present "The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (Abridged)") on Fri., Sept. 30 at 8 p.m. at the Lycian Centre for the Performing Arts in Sugar Loaf. "The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (Abridged)") is a whirlwind roller coaster tribute to the immortal bard. Three actors take on the daunting task of performing 37 plays and 154 sonnets in under two hours, illuminating the world of Shakespeare through the use of football, swordplay and hip-hop music. Irreverent and hilarious, this comedy sensation delights audiences and critics alike with a refreshing blend of madcap humor that includes everything from puns and pratfalls to elaborate sight gags.

All sixteen comedies are condensed into one story containing a shipwreck, an influential duke, and his three sets of identical twins. The tragedies become the Shakespeare Football League, subtitled "Who's Got the Crown?" For "Othello," they turn to rap; "Titus Andronicus" is reduced to a cooking show; and "Hamlet," despite protestations by the cast that there are "too many words," is done not only forwards, but backwards as well!

Written in 1987 by the original founders of the Reduced Shakespeare Company, Daniel Singer, Jess Winfield and Adam Long, "The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (Abridged)") underwent many years of metamorphosis before its formal publishing in the United States in 1996. Tickets to this spectacular event are $28 for adults and $21 for youth (18 years and younger) and can be purchased by calling the Lycian Centre Box Office at (845) 469-2287.

Let’s Celebrate! The Greater Newburgh Symphony Orchestra, once only a dream of the visionary and dedicated Conductor-Music Director, Woomyung Choe is here to stay. Drawing from a wealth of talented area musicians, the Symphony is a major source of community pride with its own Newburgh Symphonic Chorale under the direction of Choral Master Claudia Cummings. Wilfred Raynor looked like "the east end of a scarecrow going west" and all the others could win no prizes at "What the well-dressed man is wearing" convention. If their clothes were bad, their music was not and it was greatly enjoyed along with their tomfoolery.

Kelly Helps Secure $93,660
Ear-Marked for the Warwick Fire Department
U.S. Congresswoman Sue Kelly said the Warwick Fire Department will be receiving $93,660 in federal funds to help boost local firefighting operations and safety measures. Warwick Fire Chief Frank Corkum Jr. said, "The Warwick Fire Department would like to thank Congresswoman Sue Kelly and the Department of Homeland Security for this award.”

The federal money for Warwick was secured through the Operations and Firefighter Safety Program within the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. The grant can be used for firefighter training, firefighting equipment, personal protective equipment, and upgrades to fire stations and facilities.

"Our volunteer firefighters in Warwick put their lives on the line to protect us every day, and this money will help keep them trained, equipped, and safe while they are on the line to protect us every day, and this money will help keep them trained, equipped, and safe while they stay warm this winter." Senator Morahan said the Warwick Fire Department will be receiving $93,660 in federal funds to use for firefighter training, firefighting equipment, personal protective equipment, and upgrades to fire stations and facilities.

"Our volunteer firefighters in Warwick put their lives on the line to protect us every day, and this money will help keep them trained, equipped, and safe while they keep our communities safe," said Kelly. "It is vital for Warwick firefighters to have the resources they need to fully serve and protect local residents."

Senator Morahan to Co-Sponsor Legislation Ending State Gas Tax Windfall
New York State Senator Thomas P. Morahan urged an end to government “profiteering” on high gas prices, calling for a cap on the sales tax to provide immediate price relief to motorists, and proposed to spend an already accumulated gas tax windfall to help seniors stay warm this winter.

"Consumers deserve a fair and thorough investigation of the causes of these recent price spikes, and an assurance that oil companies have not unfairly profited. The unexpected tax windfall generated by soaring gas prices doesn’t belong to the government, it belongs to the people," said Senator Morahan.

The Senator said that he will be co-sponsoring legislation to roll back the gas tax and replace it with a fixed state-local levy, providing motorists immediate savings up to eight to 10 cents per gallon on fuel purchased at more than $2 per gallon. Unlike the existing levy, the new gas tax would not rise as prices increase, thereby eliminating any future windfall to state and local governments.

Warwick Football Roars Back Against Minisink, 22-21

By Gregory Sirico

The Warwick Wildcats and the Minisink Warriors get together it is always going to be a "down to the wire" game. Friday night's 22–21 Wildcat victory may have been the greatest game to date between the conference opponents. The Cats showed character, pride and the heart of champions coming from behind to secure the victory. Derek Hrinya, Matt Stranski and Ryan Darcey each scored touchdowns for Warwick, erasing a 13 point Minisink lead of champions coming from behind to secure the victory. Derek Hrinya, Matt Stranski and Ryan Darcey each scored touchdowns for Warwick, erasing a 13 point Minisink lead.

John Gianinno Comes Up Big

Defensive back John Gianinno has never been intimidated by the size of the receivers he is asked to cover. The 5’8” 155 lb. defensive back has been stellar all season shutting down opponents' receivers. John had two pass break-ups for the Wildcats including a fourth quarter post that shut down a Minisink drive. John keeps getting better every week and the sky is the limit on his ability as the Wildcats get into defending their conference title.

Wildcats Get Up Points to Win

With seconds remaining in the game Warwick was faced with a fourth down and long from their own 35 yard line. Fearing a punt block or snapping error, the Cats elected to run for a safety and kill the clock in the end zone (remember the blocked punt of 2003 vs. Washingtonville in the Conference Final), expecting only to possibly have to squib a kick-off to end the game. But an officiating error left almost 20 seconds on the clock following the safety. A Minisink return to the 35 yard line should have ended the game but Matt Stranski secured the victory with an interception on the Warwick 25 yard line with two seconds left.

Wildcat Attendance Hits New High

The Warwick Football team hosted youth football night and the fans were treated to the future stars of Warwick Football with a half time exhibition put on by Warwick’s division two and division one youth football teams. The High School Pep Band and outstanding community support put Fri., nights attendance at 5,100 people - one of the largest crowds to witness a football game since the new stadium was built around C.A. Morgan Field in 2000.

Ryan Runs Wild As 2005 XC Season Begins

by Richard Furst

National champion, Aislinn Ryan put together the two fastest 5K races ever run by an American High School girl, in the month of Sept., and ran both within the same week. Staring with the Lions Club 5K and finishing with Wave XCI, Mania, Ryan ran 16:38.5 on the roads and 16:55.2 on the cross country course at Sandfordville. Both times current- ly the lead nation. While Ryan was blistering the roads and fields, the rest of the team was also running to personal records. Tori Pennings, Kylelyn Hurley, Kristen Peluso and Samantha Grady all posted personal records for the Lions Club race and all ran PRs for the Wave XCI Mania race. However, even though the team ran fast, they were outrun by an excellent team from Pope John (PJ) XXIII High School from Sparta, NJ at Sandfordville. Ryan won easily and Pennings took seventh, but a pair of PJ runners placed first in front of Hurley and one more in front of Peluso gave PJ 35 to Warwick’s 45.

Pope John placed 2, 5, 8, 9, and 11 while Warwick placed 1, 7, 10, 13, and 14. Also running great were the freshman team and JV squad as they both scored convinc- ing victories with the frosh team, scoring 12 points and the Frenzy Anyone?

Tips to Keep You on Your Game

Q. Where is the best place to vol- ley the ball, after the net or back at the service line?

A. The best place to volley is always halfway between the service line and the back. From there you are closer to the net and behind the service line or around 3/4 court. All great serve-and-volley players learn to hit volleys from 3/4 court, which is in between the service line and the net. From there you try to get to your IP and put the balls away. Without a good volley from 3/4 court it is hard to get to your IP and be effective at net.

Q. I have seen players use both one hand and two hands on a backhand shot. What technique makes a particular backhand shot more effective than the other?

A. Each backhand has its advantages and disadvan- tages, depending on the player, and their physique. Fabil- ity. The advantages of a one-handed backhand are: you have more reach, more power if timed properly, and you can have the same preparation for the topspin and slice and disguise the shot. The advantages of the two- handed backhand are: more control over your shot, and over your movement. The disadvantages are: you have less reach and less power, therefore movement and positioning are critical for the two-handed shot.

The Warwick Fire, moving from U10 to U11 and up to Division 1 this season, played Florida, on Florida’s home field, on Sept., 11. Florida, with one team member on the Olympic Development Team, started the game with an incredible shot on the Warwick goal, only to be deflected and caught by goalie Jamie Eigo. Florida’s defense contin- ued their strong push, but Warwick’s defensive line would not allow a goal. Warwick countered with their own offensive push down the pitch and Phillip Goska scored Warwick’s first goal of the season. Nicholas Daigle, seeing an opportunity of his own to score, also managed a goal in the first half. Florida’s defense came on strong in the second half, denying Nick Blomfield’s many attempts on goal, while Warwick’s goalkeeper in the second half, Matt Unick, made two incredible saves, one in which he threw his body on top of the ball in front of an oncoming Florida striker. In the final few minutes of the game, Gregory Snigur received a cross pass and sunk a corner shot. The final score was Warwick 3, Florida 0.

The Fire plays again on Sept. 18 against the Newburgh Revolution in Warwick.

SPORTS FANS! I DON’T KNOW

Brought to You By Eric Nielsen

Do you have any idea what college quarterbacking record was set by Detroit Lions head coach Steve Mariucci back in 1975, when he was the fourth-string quarterback at Northern Michigan University. Incredibly, the three others ahead of him were injured, allowing Mariucci the starter. The football season progressed from 13-1 that season and won the Division II national championship. Just one season earlier, in 1974, Northern Michigan’s mark for the season was 0-10, so Mariucci became the quarterback who guided his team to the greatest one-year turnaround in NCAA history.

It might come as a surprise to learn that high school football has been played for almost as long as the game has been around. In fact, the oldest high school football rivalry in the country dates all the way back to 1875, when Connecticut loses New London and Norwich Free Academy first met. Entering 2005, the two schools had squared off a record 140 times this past season with New London winning more than a season. For more than a century, the oldest rivalry west of the Mississippi began in 1892 between Abilene and Chapman, Kansas.

Sports bars are everywhere these days, even in the smallest of towns. But where did they all begin? Most sports fans think of the famous Tom’s Shoe in New York, where players and writers gathered throughout the 1940s, ’50s and ’60s. But the first bar specifically themed for sports and designed to attract sports fans was a place called Runyon’s, named after leg- endary sportswriter Damon Runyon, which opened in New York in 1931. With the success of the most classic sports bars came complete with TV screens and memorabilia – was Champions, which opened its doors in 1983 in Washington, D.C.
