April 3—Manchester by the Sea (2016) Starring Casey Affleck and Michelle Williams. An uncle is obliged to return home to care for his nephew after his brother dies. Unknowing he is to be the guardian and struggles with the decision. Throughout the movie he recounts past memories that caused him to leave Manchester and distance himself from his past. Rated R; 2 hours, 17 min.

April 10—Arrival (2016) Starring Amy Adams and Jeremy Renner. When twelve mysterious spacecraft appear around the world, linguistics professor Louise Banks is tasked with interpreting the language of the apparent alien visitors. Rated PG-13, 2 hours.

April 17—Singin' in the Rain (1952) Starring Gene Kelly and Debbie Reynolds. Set during the advent of "talkies," Don Lockwood has risen to stardom during Hollywood's silent-movie era - paired with the beautiful, jealous and dumb Lina Lamont. And when Lockwood becomes attracted to young studio singer Kathy Selden, Lamont has her fired. But with the introduction of talking pictures, Lockwood finds his career in jeopardy after audiences laugh when they hear Lamont speak in her shrill voice for the first time... until the studio decides to use Selden to dub her voice. NR; 1 hour; 43 min.

April 24—Into the Arms of Strangers: Stories of the Kindertransport (2000) Narrated by Judi Dench. For nine months prior to World War II, in an act of mercy unequalled anywhere else before the war, Britain conducted an extraordinary rescue mission, opening its doors to over 10,000 Jewish and other children from Germany, Austria, and Czechoslovakia. These children, or Kinder as they came to be known, were taken into foster homes and hostels in Britain, expecting eventually to be reunited with their parents. The majority of them never saw their families again. Rated PG; 2 hours. A special discussion with Linda Dubin to follow screening.

May 1—NO MOVIE

May 8—The Eagle Huntress (2016) Narrated by Daisy Ridley. This spellbinding documentary follows Aisholpan, a 13-year-old nomadic Mongolian girl who is fighting to become the first female eagle hunter in twelve generations of her Kazakh family. Through breathtaking aerial cinematography and intimate verite footage, the film captures her personal journey while also addressing universal themes like female empowerment, the natural world, coming of age and the onset of modernity. Rated G; 87 min.

May 15—The King and I (1956) Starring Yul Brynner and Deborah Kerr. A widow accepts a job as a live-in governess to the King of Siam's children. Not rated; 2 hours; 13 min.
