Warm Memories: Painting Warwick's history and spirit.

a conversation with artist Robert Fletcher

On Saturday, Feb. 4 at 2:00 Albert Wisner Public Library will host a conversation with New Milford artist Robert Fletcher about his paintings of local history and scenes. Mr. Fletcher has spent many years studying and painting the Warwick of days gone by and its rural landscape and characters. Every canvas is a story which tells us something about ourselves and our identity as a community; register for this program by calling the help desk at 986-1047 ext. 3 or at www.albertwisnerlibrary.org.
