

DIANE OUZOONIAN JEM AND SCOUT PLAYING

Born in Portland, Maine, Diane moved to California to study at the University of California at Santa Cruz. After graduating Diane moved back east to study with Philip Guston and Gretna Campbell at the New York Studio School in Greenwich Village. At Montclair State University she received a teaching credential and taught art in the school system. Over 10 years she has taught drawing at Mount St. Mary College in Newburgh; in addition to providing pastel, drawing and watercolor workshops throughout the library systems. Diane paints in pastels, watercolors and oils. She is an active member in the Northeast Watercolor Society, Artists in the Park and Warwick Art League. She helps run the Warwick Life Drawing group which meets every Wednesday in Warwick. Her work has been shown at more than 50 exhibitions and shows throughout the region. In October 2014 Diane is scheduled to show "Warwick Life," a number of oils, pastels and watercolors landscapes and village life at The Caffe a la Mode in Warwick, NY. "Drawing from the model and painting plein air are essential in staying active as an artist today."
